The 65th UFDC Convention has come and gone. It was G-r-r-r-eat fun!! The setting was the J W Marriott in San Antonio, TX. The hotel and convention center were spacious and roomy. From Tuesday on there was so much to do. The antique and modern competition rooms were filled with so many beautiful dolls. You could have spent a whole day just browsing the aisles. The luncheons programs that I attended were interesting and fun. It is always nice to sit at a table with new friends and chat about your passions (Dolls!) Loretta Nardone (UFDC 2nd VP) and her team did a superb job organizing a very special week. Be sure to read your fall 2014 Unity News to learn what is in store for next year's 66th UFDC National Convention. We will be in Kansas City, MO. Home of UFDC National Headquarters. You will be there for the grand opening of the newly renovated UFDC Museum!
