

The United Federation of Doll Clubs, Inc. Presents

A Jambalaya Jubilee

The 63rd Annual Convention
July 24th to July 27th, 2012
New Orleans, Louisiana

Please contact me as soon as possible if you would like to help with the convention in any way. I hope to hear from many of you.

Anita Berg
318-798-0156
anitahb@mac.com

UFDC Fundraiser in New Orleans your participation is needed!

If you were there and weren't afraid to be square at the Motown Music Gathering in Detroit in 2007, you know we had a rocking good time. If you skipped the beat and missed this treat, here is another chance to meet. Join us in New Orleans at the Razy Snazzy Raging Cajun Jamboree!

You are invited to join in the fun and entertain fellow UFDC members. Interested individuals and groups may preregister their "act" by contacting Kate Reed 201 Wood St. Warren, PA 16365. Ph. 814/723-4520. Email dreed107@verizon.net.

Winter News Region 7

Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi

December 6, 2011

Remember these dates!

February 25, 2012, Northshore Doll Club Luncheon at the Clarion Inn and Suites, Covington, Louisiana. A limited number of reservations are available. Contact Helen Latino 985-542-0836. Luncheon cost of $55 includes a souvenir doll, guest speaker, salesroom and more! What a bargain!

Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year!

July 24 to July 27 2012

New Orleans

Wonderful, Exciting 63rd Annual Convention!

Welcome Our New Members at Large: Ronda Elrick, Meridian, Ms.; Mary Gravely, Gonzales, La.; Leigh Kilpatrick, Meridian, Ms.; and the South Regional Library in Lafayette, La.

Donations for the work of our non-profit organization, UFDC, are need and greatly appreciated! Our region has donated this quarter to the UFDC Unity Fund from Cindy Tarnoff in honor of Joan Allocca and also to the Unity Fund a gift from the Central Louisiana Doll Club; to the regional director fund in honor of Anita Berg from the Northshore Doll Club, and to the Regional Directors fund a memorial for Dee Sybrandt from the Northwest Arkansas Heirloom Doll Club.

Thank you

Acadiania Babes of Lafayette Louisiana held an auction on November 19 to benefit Miss Kyoto, the Arkansas Japanese Friendship Doll. The sale was held at the home of Cynthia and George Orgeron in Hammond, Louisiana. Coke Bellino, dressed just like a Japanese Friendship Doll is pictured at the auction. The club had a fine and very successful event.

The Premier Doll Show and Sale of the Central Arkansas Doll Club was held on December 3 in North Little Rock. Although the public attendance was light, all of the members and dealers had a good day of playing with dolls. I was happy to see members of the Searcy Doll Club, The Heart of Arkansas Doll Club, The Northshore Doll Club and all of the hosts of the Central Arkansas Club. Thank you for a wonderful show.

The North Louisiana Antique Doll and Toy Club in Shreveport collected and decorated 30 table sized Christmas trees, which they donated to Providence House, a home for homeless families. They provided trees so every family could have a tree in their private room.

Please consider UFDC as you make your charitable contributions from your club during this season of giving. I know there are many wonderful causes, but I believe UFDC is a wonderful charity and deserves our support. I hope the fellowship and knowledge we gain about other cultures and other times in history enrich your lives like they do mine. I wish that UFDC could be as great as it is today when our children and grandchildren have more time to enjoy the hobby. Thank you for all of your support.

My Christmas wish is to see you all in New Orleans!

