Message from your Regional Director—DOLLICIOUS

Summer

The time has come for me to thank my Region 15 doll clubs for a wonderful time visiting clubs in and around the New England area. I met some beautiful, artistic, compassionate, and wonderful individuals who make doll collecting a fantastic hobby. I will continue to meet old and new passionate doll lovers.

The Happy Hobby Doll Club celebrated its 32 year as a club. Members and dolls dressed up for the party

The Black Gold Doll Club of New England had their annual "Black Dolls on Parade" event. We just had our 20th year celebration. We continue to increase the number of Junior collectors. We now have 86 wonderful young collectors."

Visited the South Shore D.O.L.L.S of MA at the home of Nina Tolken. The presentation was given by past UFDC President Linda Edward on wooden dolls.

I have enjoyed my time as Regional Director and will continue to help bring in new younger members along with exploring new dolls and help expand on our technical world but remembering that books still remain part of our world of dolls.
