REGION 1 QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

Alaska, Idaho, Oregon, Washington

Vicki Newhouse, Director
Winter, 2015

From: Vicki

In September, my husband and I drove to Orange County, California for a family gathering. Wedding, buffet and dancing with a four hour cruise of Newport Harbor. It was old home week. The Huntington Beach Pier remains my touchstone.

Another highlight was our stop to see Patty Reed's doll at Sutter's Fort in Sacramento. The 4" peg wooden doll has her own cube display case. She survived the wagon trip from Illinois and the harsh winter with the Donner Party in the High Sierras. Praise to the little owner, who would not travel, without dolly in her pocket. What a comfort.

REGION 1 NEWS

Rose Percy delighted everyone at the Rose Percy Liberty Ball on 11-1-14. The Seattle Doll and Toy Collectors presented the 22" English wax doll on several tables to accommodate her stunning 1860's wardrobe sewn to raise funds for the Civil War.

This Region 1 club exceeded fund raising records. Thank you Mary Senko, Chairman, Nancy Greenawalt, Registrar and every member of this most active doll club. Individually creatively decorated centerpiece trees dazzled.

Thanks also to Michael Canadas and David Robinson of the Carmel Doll Shop for touring this historical doll.

CASCADE DOLL CLUB MEETING PROGRAM:

"Recently, the ladies of Cascade Doll Club were given an informative talk about "The History of Wooden Dolls" by member, Amy Erickson. In conclusion, Amy distributed clothespin doll kits which she had made and challenged us to make our own wooden dolls. We were delighted and amazed at the wide variety and imagination shown. The picture shows the creations."

SUPPORT OUR LOCAL LIBRARIES:

Would you or your doll club consider gifting your community library with a subscription to DOLL NEWS? What a wonderful way to share our doll collecting hobby with readers from your own town. We currently only have four libraries that have an annual membership and all four are in Washington. How about Alaska, Idaho and Oregon?

All you have to do is send your check for $40.00 to the Central Office. Include the library name, address and to whose attention to make sure it is displayed with other periodicals. Spread our word!

UFDC NATIONAL CONVENTION:

It's not too early to get friends together and start making plans to attend the National Convention from July 16-19, 2015. Souvenir doll by Susan Fousnot.
This is the year to treat yourself to a trip to the home of our member owned Museum. You may have visited before, but wait until you see the remodeled museum with new exhibit cases bursting with acquisitions from The Rosalie Whyel family of Washington (Region 1) and also from Anne Mears of Wyoming along with many others.

There are newly arranged dolls from the rarest of antiques to the most modern to provide a learning session for all interests. Browse through the research library. Take home a treasure from the Gift Shop.
