Welcome to our Fall Region 7 Newsletter. I hope everyone has had a great late summer and ready for all our fall colors from outside, on our doors and in our homes. I have already put some of mine out as I love it, then I add pumpkins, then witches, then take out witches & etc and add turkeys. Then we have to take it all down and get ready for Christmas—oh dear, it will be here before we know it.

Thanks for the calls & emails from so many of you. I plan to go to the Northshore Doll Clubs Christmas party. I'm already getting excited and looking forward to going.

I was able to see several of you in Little Rock for the unveiling of Miss Kyoto-shi. It was a wonderful event. The Mayor of Little Rock was our special guest. The Japanese Friendship Doll is at home, on display in the Museum of Discovery. Carol Fields and seven other Japanese Dancers performed which was an added treat. I must add that our own Cynthia did a good job dancing with them. Scott Pate did is part also.
Fun- Fun

I had an email from Barbara Corson for an update on the UFDC ebay auction that began October 2. Each region is to donate and be a part of this great auction by sending 12 items. Region 7 is in Aug. & Sept. so you can get them to me by then. There will be more information later. Remember that UFDC is 501 c3 so all donations are deductible.

Bayou Bebes of Baton Rouge is having a Doll Show & Sale Feb. 23, 2013 from 9 AM – 3:30 PM. Admission is $4.. The show will be held at Milton J. Womack Park – 6201 Florida Blvd. Baton Rouge, LA. 70806 . You may call the Orgerons at 985-386-4291 or Suzanne Mouch at 225-578-9595. This is always a great show. I hope many will be able to attend.

The president of the Les Enfant D' Anton Doll Club of New Orleans Peggy Labom called me about how much she and her husband enjoyed the convention. They both entered dolls in competition and won several ribbons. Peggy also won the presidents choice award. It is exciting to see our members so happy about dolls.

We are lucky to have a Bed & Breakfast in our Region. Cynthia & George Orgeron in Ponchatoula, LA. They offer this at their home which was built in 1904 with there wide collection of wonderful dolls and toys. There are many shops, antique and Boutique type shops. Restaurant, bars and good Jazz Email them at cynthiaorgeron@bellsouth.net.

I keep thinking how you, and each club member can become more involved with a active club. There must be a happy club with each member busy. If there seems nothing for you, then do something on your own. There are many schools, clubs that might like to see some of your doll or tell a story about dolls or toys. Please think about this. And get busy, get excited and tell everyone about UFDC and what it can so for them.

I have returned from Kansas City where I attended a great training for new Regional Directors. I was so impressed with everyone, how they love all of us and want to pressure dolls improve everything for the benefit for our dolls, for our children and people all over the world. Doll are a part of every ones history. Know for sure we are in good hands.

My wish to all of you is to be safe and have many wonderful times with friends and family for all the Holidays. Have a Merry Christmas and a wonderful and happy new year. Lets all play dolls with UFDC.

Have a wonderful holiday with all that you wish to be & can be with. I have a 4 month great-grand son so it will be exciding in my house.
